

INFO

Algeria, officially the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria al-Jumhūriyya al-Jazā'iriyya ad-Dīmuqrāṭiyya aš-Ša'biyya

(Arabic) الجمهورية الجزائرية الديمقراطية

INFO

Algeria was a French colony until 1962. It is difficult to determine which razor blades before this date were made in Algeria, as all the packaging said "made in France"

INFO

Initially, most factories in Algeria were subsidiaries of French factories (Gillete, Gibbs, Ile de France, Thompson, Usilame). After independence, some of these factories only changed their names (For example Usilame->Fabrillame)

After the departure of the French, the quality of packaging in the former Gibbs factory has deteriorated significantly. Perhaps earlier the packaging was made in France?

INFO

In Algeria, like most other manufacturers, uses packaging made of tape and foil-covered paper.

Because not all collectors collect such packaging (covered with foil or waxed with a machine print and without graphics),

I place them in the catalog separately.
